GOOD HUNTING.

Someday, when railroads gets to running down the Colorado, Salt River valley may encounter rivalry in her pork industry.
The wildest of hogs live both above and below Yuma, on the Colorado river, in San Diego county. While the steamer was lying at Castle Dome landing, a few days since, loading with ore, a fine band of them on the opposite shore came down to the river to feed on the banks, where the grass and weeds were green, and to get a drink of water. They paid no attention to the boat, nor to the Indians at work. After floating around for awhile, an old boar came out of the brush, and on syring the boat gave a "swish" and away they all went. Hardly a day passes that the Indians, and cattlemen do not run upon them.
These bands seem to be more timid than ugly.

When the late Thomas Blythe was trying to settle a colony at Lerdo forty-five miles below Yuma, on the Colorado, he sent down a large number of very fine full-blooded Berkshire and Poland-China pigs and turned them loose on the banks of the river near Lerdo, where they lived on the roots, grass, weeds, tules and mes-quite-beans; bred, multiplied, kept fat and filled the low and tule lands with a large number of fine pork-ers. Never seeing a human being except now and then a lone Indian, they soon became wild, and wilder still, and scattered until the low lands and woods were full of them.

Notwithstanding that the coyotes slaughtered the little ones in great numbers, they have increased until it is estimated that at the present time there are more than 10,000 of them roaming up and down the Colorado and Hardie rivers, from their mouths up as high as the tide runs, or from sixty to seventy miles this side of the gulf—

Piles! Piles! Itching Piles.
SYMPTOMS—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cents. Dr.
Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

Ratios of Illegitimacy.

A table of statistics of illegitimacy in Europe, purchased by Dr.
Albert Leffingwell, shows the Irish to be the most virtuous of all the people, the ratio of illegitimate births among them being twenty-six in every thousand. The English rate is forty-eight, and the Scotch eighty-two per thousand. thus we may roughly say that for every child born out of wedlock in Ireland two are born in England and three in Scotland. In Europe at large, Ireland is closely followed in its place of honor by Russia, with the low rate of twenty-eight per thousand, and by Holland with the rate of thirty-two per thousand. The Italian and French rates are respectively seventy-four and eighty-two per thousand, comparable with the rate in Scotland.
Among the countries that show the highest proportions of illegitimacy are Sweden, Saxony, Bavaria and Austria, in which the rates range from one hundred to one hundred and forty per thousand. Austria is at the opposite pole from Ireland and takes the lowest place in mortality among the European nations, with a rate of one hundred and forty-six per thousand. The inquiry into the causes of these varying rates of illegitimacy raises complicated and interesting problems. The causes generally supposed to be principal factors in the matter are poverty, ignorance, and the contamination of great cities.
Examining the influence of these,
Dr. Leffingwell finds it very slight.
In Ireland, the lowest rates are in the poorest countries; and the author affirms that "there is now here such uniform relation between the indigence of a people and the prevalence of illegitimacy as to justify the hypothesis that this phase of moral delinquency in any district or country can be accurately described as caused by its poverty. As little can the influence of great cities account for the prevalence of illegitimacy. Education and cred appear to have little influence. We must seek the real factors in race and heredity, legislative restraints upon marriage, social usage, and other like circumstances."—Popular Science Monthly.

Marvelous Results.
From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Diamond Lake, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia, succeeding La Grippe. Terrible prostrations of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Gonder & Co.'s drugstore.
Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

In a letter of recent date to ex-Governor Wolley, Senator O. H.
Platt of Connecticut, thus shows where the blame lies for the delay of action on the Arizona admission bill. Says he:
"I have no idea that Mr. Faulkner, the chairman of the committee, (on territories) intends to call up the Arizona bill this session. He would be glad to excuse himself on the theory that there is Republican opposition to it, but I know of none."

No man is better acquainted with the status of the statehood bill and the causes which impede its passage than Senator Platt. He was chairman of senate committee on territories during the Fifty Second congress and is now a member of that committee. That he knows of no Republican opposition to the bill is certainly in this case equivalent to saying that there is none.

There can, therefore, be no doubt as to the responsibility of whatever delay the bill has encountered or may encounter.

The only apparent obstacle is Senator Faulkner and he is a Democrat.—Phoenix Republican.

A Cure for the Liquor Habit.

Dr. Robert A. Kittle, a young physician and surgeon of Racine, Wis., who has achieved a national reputation as an ovariologist, has come to the front with a cure for dipsomania which he proposes to give to the world—gratis for the good that it may do. He believes that he has discovered an infallible cure for the drink habit; and he gives the following formula: Ichthyol Ammon Sulpho.....2 drachms Hodrositis Sulphate.....1 drachm Tr. Nux Vomica.....2 drachms Resorcine.....2 drachms Tr. Columbo (non-alcoholic).....3 ounces Liq. Ammon. Acetatis, q. s.....3 ounces Two teaspoonfuls every three hours for three weeks.

Directions to druggists how to compound the medicine.—The Co-lumbo must be a non-alcoholic tincture. Evaporate the alcohol, then supply the volume left by evaporation of the alcohol by an equal volume of water, otherwise an insoluble precipitate will be had.

Dr. Kittle says in a note: There is too much thunder and bombast in the W. C. T. U. and allied temperance societies; prayer cannot eradicate the appetite for strong drink. I am satisfied that the prescription used by me is an infallible cure. Hundreds of testimonials from the country are coming to me daily telling of its wonderful effect. Realizing the power of the press I have decided to submit this circular to every editor in the country to be published at least once, so that every poor victim of strong drink may be saved.

Four Big Successes.

Having the needed merit to more than make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale. Dr. King's New Discovery, for consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed—Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Bucklen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, and Dr.
King's New Life Pills which are a perfect pill. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them.
Sold at Gonder & Co.'s drugstore.

Requisites for Successful Fruit Culture.

In a public address on successful fruit culture, President Williams, of New Jersey, is reported as laying down the following seven conditions as necessary, the substance of which we give:

1. Adaptability of soils to varieties.
2. Adaptability of the man for the business.
3. Fertile soil and clean culture.
4. Productive varieties of showy appearance.
5. Fruit carefully handled and honestly put up.
6. Plant sparingly of novelties.
7. Study how to feed the different crops, as the farmer does his animals to produce the best results.

For Over Fifty Years

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.— Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhea. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by Druggists in every part of the World.
Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs.
Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

Mrs. R. F. Mogan of Monett, Mo., gave birth last week to four children—three girls and a boy—the combined weight of which is 16 pounds. The mother, a small woman, is doing well.

Saved by Whisky.

"Do you see that man?" asked Mike Rice of a Republican reporter last night as Pete Ingraham passed.
"His life was saved by a bottle of whisky and so were the lives of a lot of other men with him," continued Mr. Rice, who proceeded to tell the story. Ingraham was the boss of a gang of carpenters camped along the Hassayampa on that terrible night the Walnut Grove dam went out. Eighty-seven Arizonians died that night and the river banks are yet strewn with heavy pieces of machinery and heavy boulders of hundreds of tons weight borne like feathers on the crest of the awful flood. There has not been the giving away of another such immense reservoir since reservoirs began to be constructed.

Lake Conemaugh, which wiped Johnstown out, was a small pool compared with the Walnut Grove dam. The break occurred on the night of Washington's birthday four years ago. Dead bodies were found along the Hassayampa months afterward. Many were never found. One large camp was entirely obliterated, annihilated; not a man, not a horse, not anything belonging to it has ever been discovered.

But about the efficacy of that bottle of whisky. Pete Ingram got awake in the night burning with thirst. He couldn't find the bottle, though he thought he knew where he left it; he stumbled about and cursed in the darkness until the entire camp was wide awake, and the men awakened, heard a noise which could be accounted for on only two theories. Either the end of the world had come, or Walnut Grove dam had gone out.
A rush was made for the hills, and the needed entrance was reached just as the hungry, roaring crest, glowering in the dark night, flew along. Pete was the last man; he had found the bottle and he had succeeded in climbing the hill almost out of reach of the flood.
He was caught by the tip of the torrent and swept along. He grabbed a strong over-hanging bush and had just enough strength left to drag himself out. The bottle had been shattered in the wild ride, but Pete had the broken neck and cork in his strong left hand.

Under the McKinley law cattlemen in Arizona were protected against competition with Sonora stock growers, but the Wilson-Gorman tariff bill opens the gates along the whole line and instead of $10 duty per head, as heretofore, the law now is twenty per cent ad valorem. Cattle can be purchased in Sonora for $5 per head Mexican money or $2.50 per head American money. After paying duty cattle will stand at $3 per head on this side of the line. No American ranchman on earth can complete with such prices.—Herald.
